Instructions

1. Please fill in with computer if possible, otherwise write clearly; parts in grey are for our internal notes only.
2. Personal data as given in passport; dates always in format DD-MM-YYYY or MM-YYYY as indicated; telephone, mobile and fax numbers with international code.
3. Secondary school and university (or other degree-awarding institution) education with name and place of institution and duration of studies, and with name, type and date of degree; result as per cent or points etc. as compared to maximum, and as degree along with the system (e.g. national system, university's system etc.), for degrees to be awarded later, give the expected date.
4. English language proficiency test must be paper-based TOEFL min. 550, computer TOEFL min. 213, internet TOEFL min. 80, or IELTS min. 6.0 overall band score. German language proficiency test should preferably be DSH2 (C1 level). Other officially recognised test systems or exceptions require case-dependent approval by the Board of Examiners.
5. Space given on page 2 for remarks is for additional degrees, professional times, reasons for application from other than the country of permanent residence, etc.
6. Other material (plain copies, no need of authentication yet) required: curriculum vitae, copies from passport identifying the applicant, school-leaving and degree certificates; ORIGINALS REQUIRED FOR ENROLMENT ONLY, NOT FOR APPLICATION.
7. Letters of recommendation are not required for application; if submitted anyway, the applicant should be sure that the letters add to his or her reputation.
8. Include a copy of the acceptance letter or email of your mentor.
9. Send only by surface mail, not by e-mail, no e-mail attachment with scanned seals or signatures, no personal details by e-mail.
10. Deadline for sending the application to Bonn: January, 15th for the Summer semester or July 15th for the Winter semester.
